

ANU COLLEGE OF BUSINESS AND ECONOMICS
POSTGRADUATE SCHOLARSHIP FOR ABORIGINAL OR TORRES STRAIT ISLANDERS
CONDITIONS OF AWARD

1. INTRODUCTION

Each year the ANU College of Business and Economics (“the College”) may offer a scholarship known as the ANU College of Business and Economics Postgraduate Scholarship for Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander (“the award”).

The objective of this award is to provide encouragement and support to Indigenous students undertaking postgraduate studies by reducing the financial burden of tuition fees.

Funding for this award has been provided by the ANU College of Business and Economics.

2. BENEFITS

The value of the award is stated in your letter of offer. The award will cover the standard full time duration of the program in which the scholar is enrolled in (up to 120 units).

The recipient is responsible for the costs of books, study materials, accommodation and all other costs of study.

3. ELIGIBILITY

The award is available each year to a prospective ANU student who:

- (a) is an Australian citizen;

- (e) has completed an undergraduate degree;
- (f) has received an offer for admission to a postgraduate coursework program offered by the ANU College of Business and Economics.

4. APPLICATION

There is no separate application as students applying through UAC are automatically considered based on them meeting the eligibility criteria or conditions prescribed under the Eligibility section.

Students who have applied for admission to the ANU in a previous intake, and then formally deferred their offer may still be considered for this award along with the commencing cohort. These students will need to contact the College Scholarships Office to request consideration for the award.

5. SELECTION

Selection is made on the basis of academic merit.

The award is offered to a student by a selection committee chaired by the Dean (or nominee) of the College and two academic staff members from the ANU College of Business and Economics.

If there is no eligible candidate or candidate of sufficient merit among the prospective student pool, the selection committee will consider continuing CBE students that meet the eligibility criteria in section 3, and award the scholarship to a second year student.

The College reserves the right to make no award if there is no candidate of sufficient merit. The College may also vary the number of awards and/or offer the award at other times in exceptional circumstances or based on the standard of applications or students (where funds allow).

If a recipient is unable to achieve the WAM in any semester a formal warning is sent.
