HAYDN MARSH MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP IN FAMILY LAW CONDITIONS OF AWARD

1. INTRODUCTION

Each year the ANU College of Law ('the College') may offer an award known as the Haydn Marsh Memorial Scholarship in Family Law ('the Award').

The objective of the Award is to provide financial assistance to a law student, who has an interest in family law, during their last year of their program.

Funding for this Award has been provided by the law firm Farrar Gesini Dunn, in memory of Haydn Marsh, a lawyer of the firm and ANU alumnus who passed away in February 2023.

2. BENEFITS

The value of the Award is stated in your letter of offer. The duration of the Award is for one year. The Award is paid in equal instalments after census date each semester unless otherwise stated in the letter of offer.

The recipient is responsible for making payment of all tuition fees by the prescribed date as set out by the University each session. Recipients of the Award are responsible for the costs of books, study materials, accommodation and all other costs of study.

3. ELIGIBILITY

The Award is available each year to a continuing ANU student who:

- (a) is a domestic or international student; and
- (b) is enrolled in one of the following programs at the College:
  - a. Bachelor of Laws (Honours) as a single degree and has completed at least 138 units; or
  - b. Bachelor of Laws (Honours) as a Flexible Double Degree (FDD Law) and has completed at least 186 units; or
  - c. Juris Doctor and has completed at least 90 units; and
- (c) is enrolled in at least one law course for the study period they are applying for; and
- (d) has completed LAWS4217 / 8417 Family Law.

4. APPLICATION

The application and all supporting documentation (where applicable) must be submitted on or prior to the closing date published on the ANU Scholarships website.

5. SELECTION

Only applicants who meet all the eligibility criteria will be considered. Selection is made on the basis of the overall academic performance in law courses, paying particular attention to achievement in Family Law, and the applicant's interest in and aptitude for Family Law.

TEQSA Provider: PRV12002 (Australian university)

Where there are more equally ranked applicants than there are Awards available, additional factors may be taken into account such as Indigenous status and financial hardship.

The Award is offered to a student by a selection committee chaired by the Dean of ANU College of Law (or nominee) which will also include two staff members from the ANU College of Law.

The selection committee reserves the right to make no award if it considers there is no applicant of sufficient merit. The selection committee may also vary the number of Awards and/or offer the Award at other times in exceptional circumstances or based on the standard of applications or students (where funds allow).

6. CONCURRENT HOLDING OF AWARDS

A recipient of the Award is permitted to hold concurrent student financial awards as outlined in the ANU coursework scholarships, grants and bursaries procedure.

7. DEFERMENT

The Award cannot be deferred.

8. ONGOING ELIGIBILITY

A recipient of this Award is required to enrol in a full-time load of 18 to 24 units per semester, with a minimum of 6 units in LAWS coded courses per semester. A recipient requests permission, in writing, from the Dean of ANU College of Law (or nominee) to hold the Award on a part-time basis. If approved, payments of the Award will be made on a pro-rata basis.

Recipients are expected to maintain a Grade Point Average (GPA) of 5.0 or above each semester (with the average being across all courses taken in a particular semester or session/s overlapping that semester).

If a recipient is unable to achieve the GPA or does not enrol in any LAWS coded courses in any given semester a formal warning is sent.

If the recipient does not meet the required GPA or does not enrol in any LAWS coded courses in a subsequent semester, they risk having their Award suspended or terminated.

A recipient is given the opportunity to explain their performance and how their performance can be remedied or to explain their enrolment pattern and study plan before a decision on the suspension or termination of an Award is made.

9. CESSATION OF AWARD

The Award ceases or should be surrendered:

- (a) if a student no longer meets the eligibility requirements;
- (b) at the conclusion of the period outlined in section 2;
- (c) on the date on which the recipient withdraws or ceases to attend the University other than for approved absences;
- (d) if a recipient fails to enrol as required in section 8;
- (e) if a recipient changes to part-time enrolment without receiving permission to retain the Award;
- (f) if a recipient changes their program or course without permission to retain the Award;
- (g) if a recipient fails to meet the minimum academic performance requirements; or
- (h) if a recipient breaches academic or behavioural standards set by the University under the Academic Integrity Policy and/or the Discipline Rule; whichever is earliest.

10. REPAYMENT OF FUNDS

Subject to the information available at the time, the Dean of ANU College of Law (or nominee) may request that the payment for the semester in which the breach of conditions or withdrawal occurs be refunded in part or in full.

11. PROVIDING FALSE OR MISLEADING INFORMATION

Selection for the Award is based on the information provided to the University. The Award may be withdrawn at any stage if incorrect, false or misleading information is provided or relevant information is withheld. This includes circumstances where the false information is unrelated to the assessment for the Award.

12. VARIATION TO CONDITIONS OF AWARD

Recipients are responsible for seeking independent taxation advice regarding their own individual circumstances. Student financial awards are regarded as taxable income if a recipient is enrolled on a part-time basis.
