KENNETH KENJI TAKENAKA GRANT IN SCIENCE COMMUNICATION CONDITIONS OF AWARD

1. INTRODUCTION

Each year the Australian National Centre for the Public Awareness of Science (CPAS), within the College of Science ('the College') may offer an award known as the Kenneth Kenji Takenaka Grant in Science Communication ('the Award').

The objective of the Award is to recognise and support high performing students commencing the Master of Science Communication program at the CPAS.

Funding for this Award has been provided by Kellie Ann Aki Takenaka to honour her father, an attorney and advocate in Hawaii who has always demonstrated support for local communities and educational opportunity.

2. BENEFITS

The value of the Award is stated in your letter of offer. The Award is paid in a one-off instalment after census date unless otherwise stated in the letter of offer.

The recipient is responsible for making payment of all tuition fees by the prescribed date as set out by the University each session. Recipients of the Award are responsible for the costs of books, study materials, accommodation and all other costs of study.

3. ELIGIBILITY

The Award is available each year to a commencing ANU student who:

- (a) is a domestic or international student; and
- (b) has received an offer of admission to the Master of Science Communication within the CPAS; and
- (c) has received a minimum ANU Grade Point Average (GPA) of 5.0 or equivalent in their basis admission.

4. APPLICATION

The application is submitted on the prescribed form. Any requirement for supporting documentation and forwarding details will be stated on the application form and/or ANU Scholarships website. The application and all supporting documentation (where applicable) must be submitted on or prior to the closing date published on the ANU Scholarships website.

5. SELECTION

Only applicants who meet all the eligibility criteria will be considered. Selection is made on the basis of academic merit and the quality of the application.

The Award is offered to a student by a selection committee chaired by the Director, Centre for Public Awareness of Science which will also include two academic members of the CPAS.

The selection committee reserves the right to make no award if it considers there is no applicant of sufficient merit. The selection committee may also vary the number of Awards and/or offer the Award at other times in exceptional circumstances or based on the standard of applications or students (where funds allow).

6. CONCURRENT HOLDING OF AWARDS

A recipient of the Award is permitted to hold concurrent student financial awards as outlined in the ANU coursework scholarships, grants and bursaries procedure.

7. DEFERMENT

The Award cannot be deferred.

8. ONGOING ELIGIBILITY

A recipient of this Award is required to remain enrolled in the semester/session in which the grant was awarded in the Master of Science Communication within the CPAS.

9. CESSATION OF AWARD

The Award ceases or should be surrendered:

- (a) if a student no longer meets the eligibility requirements;
- (b) at the conclusion of the period outlined in section 2;
- (c) on the date on which the recipient withdraws or ceases to attend the University other than for approved absences;
- (d) if a recipient fails to enrol as required in section 8;
- (e) if a recipient changes their program or course;
- (f) if a recipient breaches academic or behavioural standards set by the University under the Academic Integrity Policy and/or the Discipline Rule;

whichever is earliest.

10. REPAYMENT OF FUNDS

Subject to the information available at the time, the Director, CPAS may request that the payment for the semester in which the breach of conditions or withdrawal occurs be refunded in part or in full.

11. PROVIDING FALSE OR MISLEADING INFORMATION

Selection for the Award is based on the information provided to the University. The Award may be withdrawn at any stage if incorrect, false or misleading information is provided or relevant information is withheld. This includes circumstances where the false information is unrelated to the assessment for the Award.

12. TAXATION

Recipients are responsible for seeking independent taxation advice regarding their own individual circumstances. Student financial awards are regarded as taxable income if a recipient is enrolled on a part-time basis. If you are receiving Centrelink benefits, student financial awards may impact your Centrelink payments.
