SIR ROLAND WILSON FOUNDATION

Sir Roland Wilson Pat Turner Scholarship (Research)

CONDITIONS OF AWARD

1. INTRODUCTION

Each year the Sir Roland Wilson Foundation ('the Foundation') may offer a number of awards known as the SRW Pat Turner Scholarship ('the Award'). The Award supports Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Scholars to pursue either a postgraduate coursework or higher degree research program.

This document describes the Conditions of Award for SRW Pat Turner Scholars pursuing a higher degree research program at the Australian National University ('ANU' or 'the University').

Funding for this Award is provided by the Australian Public Service ('APS').

These Conditions of Award should be read in conjunction with the terms of release agreed with the Scholar's APS agency and described in the Deed of Agreement.

The objective of the Award is to increase the capability of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander employees of the APS in order to improve public sector leadership and public policy. This is achieved by supporting a recipient of the Award ('the Scholar') to pursue a Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) or Master of Philosophy (MPhil) research program at the ANU, enabling them to return to the APS with capability to build connections between academia and the APS and drive the development of evidence-based public policy.

The Foundation is a body within the ANU and has the following functions:

- Honouring the contributions of Sir Roland Wilson and Pat Turner AM to the development of public policy in Australia, and providing a permanent acknowledgement of their achievements and contributions to, and place in, Australian history;
- Advancing the study and development of public policy in Australia, particularly by fostering closer links between the APS and the University;
- Promoting and supporting activities that maintain and enhance the University's role as Australia's national university;
- Contributing to:
  - i. excellence in public policy research and analysis, particularly in areas of national importance to Australia;
  - ii. national, regional and international public policy capability to address major issues confronting governments, business and communities;
  - iii. long-term strategic relations with governments, business, other universities and institutions and the public, both within Australia and internationally;
  - iv. Australia's national unity and identity, including the advancement of its Indigenous peoples;
  - v. public policy capability and leadership.
- Supporting the development of the individual capabilities of future leaders in public policy.

- an application for leave from employment with their APS agency, in accordance with their Deed of Agreement;
- an application for leave from their program as per the University rules (see 'Program and Scholarship Leave' below).

A Scholar who has been approved by their APS agency to take leave from their PhD or MPhil program should apply for Program and Scholarship Leave from the University by completing the relevant section of the Manage my Degree – HDR form.
