BHAVITA PATEL UNDERGRADUATE SCHOLARSHIP CONDITIONS OF AWARD

1. INTRODUCTION

Each three to five years, the ANU College of Business and Economics ('the College') may offer an award known as the Bhavita Patel Undergraduate Scholarship ('the Award').

The objectives of the Award are to improve access to tertiary education for students who may not otherwise be able to attend ANU, to recognise and reward academic excellence and students who demonstrate a passion for learning and a commitment to community.

Funding for this Award has been provided by Deloitte Australia through the Deloitte Foundation, Deloitte staff and Deloitte Australia.

2. BENEFITS

The value of the Award is stated in your letter of offer. The duration of the Award is for up to five years. The Award payment will align to the recipient's academic study load. For example, 24 units' enrolment constitutes 100% of the award payment; 18 units constitutes 75% of the award payment, etc. The Award is paid in equal instalments at the beginning of semester unless otherwise stated in the letter of offer.

The recipient is responsible for making payment of all tuition fees by the prescribed date as set out by the University each session. Recipients of the Award are responsible for the costs of books, study materials, accommodation and all other costs of study.

3. ELIGIBILITY

The Award is available each three to five years to a commencing ANU student who:

- (a) is a domestic student; and
- (b) is a current school leaver, aged 20 years or younger at the time of application; and
- (c) receives an offer of admission and will enrol to an undergraduate program offered by the College; and
- (d) is eligible for and has received adjustment factors for financial hardship under the National Access Scheme (NAS).

4. APPLICATION

All applicants applying for admission through the ANU Admission Scholarship and Accommodation Application System will be automatically considered for the Award based on them meeting the eligibility criteria and electing to be considered for scholarships.

5. SELECTION

Selection is made on the basis of the severity of financial hardship experienced. Where there are more equally ranked applicants than there are Awards available, preference may be given by academic merit.

The College reserves the right to make no award if it considers there is no applicant of sufficient merit. The College may also vary the number of Awards and/or offer the Award at other times in exceptional circumstances or based on the standard of applications or students (where funds allow).

6. CONCURRENT HOLDING OF AWARDS

A recipient of the Award is permitted to hold concurrent student financial awards as outlined in the ANU coursework scholarships, grants and bursaries procedure.

7. DEFERMENT

The Award cannot be deferred.

8. ONGOING ELIGIBILITY

A recipient of this Award is required to enrol in a minimum of 6 units each semester in a program offered by the College.

Recipients are expected to pass all enrolled courses each semester.

If a recipient is unable to pass all enrolled courses in any semester a formal warning is sent.

If the recipient does not pass all enrolled courses in a subsequent semester, they risk having their Award suspended or terminated.

A recipient is given the opportunity to explain their performance and how their performance can be remedied before a decision on the suspension or termination of an Award is made.

9. CESSATION OF AWARD

The Award ceases or should be surrendered:

- (a) if a student no longer meets the eligibility requirements;
- (b) at the conclusion of the period outlined in section 2;
- (c) on the date on which the recipient withdraws or ceases to attend the University other than for approved absences;
- (d) if a recipient fails to enrol as required in section 8;
- (e) if a recipient changes their program or course without permission to retain the Award;
- (f) if a recipient fails to meet the minimum academic performance requirements; or
- (g) if a recipient breaches academic or behavioural standards set by the University under the Academic Integrity Policy and/or the Discipline Rule;

whichever is earliest.

10. REPAYMENT OF FUNDS

Subject to the information available at the time, the College of Dean (or nominee) may request that the payment for the semester in which the breach of conditions or withdrawal occurs be refunded in part or in full.

11. PROVIDING FALSE OR MISLEADING INFORMATION

Selection for the Award is based on the information provided to the University. The Award may be withdrawn at any stage if incorrect, false or misleading information is provided or relevant information is withheld. This includes circumstances where the false information is unrelated to the assessment for the Award.

12. TAXATION

Recipients are responsible for seeking independent taxation advice regarding their own individual circumstances. Student financial awards are regarded as taxable income if a recipient is enrolled on a part-time basis. If you are receiving Centrelink benefits, student financial awards may impact your Centrelink payments.
