ANU LAW CAREERS AND EMPLOYABILITY TRAVEL GRANT CONDITIONS OF AWARD

1. INTRODUCTION

Each year the ANU College of Law may offer a number of awards known as the ANU Law Careers and Employability Travel Grant ('the Award').

The objective of the Award is to financially support ANU College of Law students when undertaking an ANU College of Law Careers and Employability program or initiative.

Funding for this Award has been provided by the ANU College of Law.

2. BENEFITS

The value of the Award is stated in your letter of offer. The Award is paid in a one-off instalment upon accepting the Award unless otherwise stated in the letter of offer.

The recipient is responsible for organising their passport, visa and insurance, and other costs involved in travel with undertaking the opportunity.

The recipient is responsible for making payment of all tuition fees by the prescribed date as set out by the University each session. Recipients of the Award are responsible for the costs of books, study materials, accommodation and all other costs of study.

3. ELIGIBILITY

The Award is available each year to a continuing ANU student who:

- (a) is a domestic or international student; and
- (b) is enrolled full-time or part-time in one of the following programs at the ANU College of Law:
 - a. Bachelor of Laws (Honours) as a single or Flexible Double Degree
 - b. Juris Doctor
 - c. Master of Laws
 - d. Master of International Law and Diplomacy
 - e. Master of Financial Management and Law
- (c) has applied for, been offered a place in and intends to undertake one of the opportunities listed on the ANU Scholarships website.

4. APPLICATION

The application is submitted on the prescribed form. Any requirement for supporting documentation and forwarding details will be stated on the application form and/or ANU Scholarships website. The application and all supporting documentation (where applicable) must be submitted on or prior to the closing date published on the ANU Scholarships website.

5. SELECTION

Selection is made on the basis of applicants meeting the eligibility criteria and academic merit, especially in law subjects, and the suitability of the candidate for the opportunity they applied for based on the information provided in their application for the opportunity. Relevant experience and achievements will also be taken into account as specified by the external stakeholders. Additional factors may be taken into account such as Indigenous status and financial hardship.

The Award is offered to a student by a selection committee chaired by the Dean of the ANU College of Law (or nominee) which will also include two staff members from the ANU College of Law.

The ANU College of Law selection committee reserves the right to make no award if it considers there is no applicant of sufficient merit. The ANU College of Law selection committee may also vary the number of Awards and/or offer the Award at other times in exceptional circumstances or based on the standard of applications or students (where funds allow).

6. CONCURRENT HOLDING OF AWARDS

A recipient of the Award is permitted to hold concurrent student financial awards as outlined in the ANU coursework scholarships, grants and bursaries procedure.

7. DEFERMENT

The Award cannot be deferred.

8. ONGOING ELIGIBILITY

A recipient of this Award is required to complete the opportunity the Award was given to support.

9. CESSATION OF AWARD

The Award ceases or should be surrendered:

- (a) if a student no longer meets the eligibility requirements;
- (b) on the date on which the recipient withdraws or ceases to attend the University other than for approved absences;
- (c) if a recipient fails to meet the requirements in section 8;
- (d) if a recipient changes their program or course without permission;
- (e) if a recipient breaches the academic and/or behavioural standards set by the host;
or
- (f) if a recipient breaches academic or behavioural standards set by the University under the Academic Integrity Policy and/or the Discipline Rule;

whichever is earliest.

10. REPAYMENT OF FUNDS

Subject to the information available at the time, the Dean of the ANU College of Law (or nominee) may request that the payment for the semester in which the breach of conditions or withdrawal occurs be refunded in part or in full.

11. PROVIDING FALSE OR MISLEADING INFORMATION

Selection for the Award is based on the information provided to the University. The Award may be withdrawn at any stage if incorrect, false or misleading information is provided or relevant information is withheld. This includes circumstances where the false information is unrelated to the assessment for the Award.

12. TAXATION

Recipients are responsible for seeking independent taxation advice regarding their own individual circumstances. Student financial awards are regarded as taxable income if a recipient is enrolled on a part-time basis. If you are receiving Centrelink benefits, student financial awards may impact your Centrelink payments.
