CHRISTEL LARKO MUSIC SCHOLARSHIP CONDITIONS OF AWARD

1. INTRODUCTION

Each year the ANU School of Music ('the School') in the ANU College of Arts & Social Sciences may offer up to two awards known as the Christel Larko Music Scholarship ('the Award').

The objective of the Award is to encourage excellent students to study either classical or jazz voice or keyboard in a program offered by the School.

Funding for this Award has been provided by a bequest to the Friends of the ANU School of Music. The generous bequest by Christel Larko and the subsequent Award honours her great contribution to musical life in Canberra and realises her wish to support students of piano and voice.

2. BENEFITS

The value of the Award is stated in your letter of offer. The duration of the Award is for one year. The Award is paid in equal instalments after census date each semester unless otherwise stated in the letter of offer.

The recipient is responsible for making payment of all tuition fees by the prescribed date as set out by the University each session. Recipients of the Award are responsible for the costs of books, study materials, accommodation and all other costs of study.

3. ELIGIBILITY

The Award is available each year to a commencing or continuing ANU student who:

- (a) is a domestic or international student; and
- (b) is enrolled/enrolling in a program offered by the School; and
- (c) is specialising in either classical or jazz voice or keyboard; and
- (d) is enrolled/enrolling in a Performance Major.

4. APPLICATION

All applicants applying for admission through the ANU Admission Scholarship and Accommodation Application System will be automatically considered for the Award based on them meeting the eligibility criteria and electing to be considered for scholarships.

For International students and domestic students not applying through the ANU Admission Scholarship and Accommodation Application System, there is no application as students are automatically considered based on them meeting the eligibility criteria or conditions prescribed under the Eligibility section.

5. SELECTION

Selection is made on the basis of applicants meeting the eligibility criteria and for those who, in the opinion of the committee, are deemed to display an outstanding level of musical ability and accomplishment in either piano or voice, classical or jazz, as demonstrated at audition. Selection may be based on past academic achievement or on ability as demonstrated in their entry audition.

The Award is offered to a student by a selection committee chaired by the ANU School of Music, Head of School, which will also include the Performance Convenor and may include other ANU School of Music staff as relevant. As per the donor's wishes, the School will endeavour to evenly balance selection for the Award between piano and voice students over the life of the Award.

The School reserves the right to make no award if it considers there is no applicant of sufficient merit. The School may also vary the number of Awards and/or offer the Award at other times in exceptional circumstances or based on the standard of applications or students (where funds allow).

6. CONCURRENT HOLDING OF AWARDS

A recipient of the Award is permitted to hold concurrent student financial awards as outlined in the ANU Coursework Scholarships procedure.

7. DEFERMENT

The Award cannot be deferred.

8. ONGOING ELIGIBILITY

A recipient of this Award is required to enrol in a full-time load of 24 units per semester. A recipient requests permission, in writing, from the Head of School to hold the Award on a part-time basis. If approved, payments of the Award will be made on a pro-rata basis.

9. CESSATION OF AWARD

The Award ceases or should be surrendered:

- (a) if a student no longer meets the eligibility requirements;
- (b) at the conclusion of the period outlined in section 2;
- (c) on the date on which the recipient withdraws or ceases to attend the University other than for approved absences;
- (d) if a recipient fails to enrol as required in section 8;
- (e) if a recipient changes to part-time enrolment without receiving permission to retain the Award;
- (f) if a recipient changes to a major/speciality not mentioned in Section 3;
- (g) if a recipient is employed by the University on a full-time continuing basis or a fixed term contract for 12 months or greater;
- (h) if a recipient breaches academic or behavioural standards set by the University under the Academic Integrity Policy and/or the Discipline Rule;

whichever is earliest.

10. REPAYMENT OF FUNDS

Subject to the information available at the time, the Head of School may request that the payment for the semester in which the breach of conditions or withdrawal occurs be refunded in part or in full.

11. PROVIDING FALSE OR MISLEADING INFORMATION

Selection for the Award is based on the information provided to the University. The Award may be withdrawn at any stage if incorrect, false or misleading information is provided or relevant information is withheld. This includes circumstances where the false information is unrelated to the assessment for the Award.

12. TAXATION

Recipients are responsible for seeking taxation advice regarding their own individual circumstances. Student financial awards are regarded as taxable income if a recipient is enrolled on a part-time basis. If you are receiving Centrelink benefits, student financial awards may impact your Centrelink payments.

14. PUBLICITY

The recipient may be requested to participate in publicity for the Award from time to time. This may include publicity in the state or territory of residence or of schooling. Recipients may be contacted for an interview and photograph. The University may also publicise the Award by publishing the names of the recipients. Arrangements for such publicity will be made through the ANU School of Music or ANU Communications and Engagement (ACE).

15. DISCLOSURE AND DONOR CONTACT

For the purposes of reporting on the impact of student financial awards, the name, program name and demographics (for example: age, country or town of residence) relating to a recipient of the Award may be disclosed to donors supporting the Award. This will not include recipient contact details. The recipient may be asked to write a personal note of thanks or to meet with donors. Any contact between a donor and a recipient will be facilitated by the ANU Advancement Office or an authorised representative of the University.

16. CONTACT WITH THE AWARD OWNER

All enquiries regarding the Award and changes, issues, or further information after acceptance should be made to:

Scholarships and Prizes Officer, ANU College of Arts and Social Science
