JOY AND NORMAN WHEATLEY RURAL SCHOLARSHIP

CONDITIONS OF AWARD

1. INTRODUCTION

Each year the Research School of Social Sciences ('the School'), within the College of Arts and Social Sciences ('the College') may offer an award known as the Joy and Norman Wheatley Rural Scholarship ('the Award').

The objective of the Award is to support undergraduate students from a rural, regional or remote background undertaking the Bachelor of Arts and/or the Bachelor of Arts (Honours) focusing their studies on Australian History, or Philosophy.

Funding for this Award has been provided by ANU alumni Joy and Norman Wheatley.

2. BENEFITS

The value of the Award is stated in your letter of offer. The duration of the Award is for up to five years. The Award is paid in equal instalments after census date each semester unless otherwise stated in the letter of offer.

The recipient is responsible for making payment of all tuition fees by the prescribed date as set out by the University each session. Recipients of the Award are responsible for the costs of books, study materials, accommodation and all other costs of study.

3. ELIGIBILITY

The Award is available each year to a continuing ANU student who:

- (a) is a domestic student; and
- (b) received an offer of admission to the Bachelor of Arts or to the Bachelor of Arts (Honours) offered by the College; and
- (c) is majoring or specialising in one of the following subjects: History, Philosophy or Australian Indigenous Studies; and

The application and all supporting documentation (where applicable) must be submitted on or prior to the closing date published on the ANU Scholarships website.

5. SELECTION

Only applicants who meet all the eligibility criteria will be considered. Selection is made on the basis of the quality of the responses provided in the application. Where there are more equally ranked applicants than there are Awards available, preference may be given first to a student who attended their final years of schooling in a regional or rural school, then to a student with an interest in Australian History; or conducting a thesis with an Australian History Focus.

The Award is offered to a student by a selection committee chaired by the Director of the School which will also include the Head of School of History (or delegate) and the Head of School of Philosophy (or delegate).

The selection committee reserves the right to make no award if it considers there is no applicant of sufficient merit. The selection committee may also vary the number of Awards and/or offer the Award at other times in exceptional circumstances or based on the standard of applications or students (where funds allow).
