LOVE SUPREME GRANT CONDITIONS OF AWARD

1. INTRODUCTION

In 2024 the ANU School of Music ('the School') within the ANU College of Arts and Social Sciences ('the College') may offer an award known as the Love Supreme Grant ('the Award').

The objective of the Award is to provide a fellowship opportunity to a recent ANU School of Music graduate, with a demonstrated track record in music excellence and achievement, as well as a presence in the community, fostering the musical and cultural life of Canberra, as they embark on a project(s) that develop their artistic practice to an international level.

Funding for this Award has been provided by Ms Susan Grace.

2. BENEFITS

The value of the Award is stated in your letter of offer. The Award is paid in a one-off instalment upon accepting the Award unless otherwise stated in the letter of offer.

3. ELIGIBILITY

The Award is available in 2024 to a recent ANU graduate who:

- (a) was a domestic student; and
- (b) has completed the requirements for the award of a Bachelor of Music within the last three calendar years as at the closing date for applications for the Award.

4. APPLICATION

The application is submitted on the prescribed form. Any requirement for supporting documentation and forwarding details will be stated on the application form and/or ANU Scholarships website. The application and all supporting documentation (where applicable) must be submitted on or prior to the closing date published on the ANU Scholarships website.

5. SELECTION

Only applicants who meet all the eligibility criteria will be considered. Selection is made on the basis of applicants meeting the eligibility criteria, the quality of the application and academic merit. Where there are more equally ranked applicants than there are Awards available, preference may be given to applicants whose proposed fellowship activities allow them to incorporate and explore a variety of musical styles, genres and/or techniques into a series of major works with a strong performative element.

The Award is offered to a student by a selection committee chaired by the Head of the School, which will also include the Performance Convenor and an ANU staff member.

The School reserves the right to make no award if it considers there is no applicant of sufficient merit. The School may also vary the number of Awards and/or offer the Award at other times in exceptional circumstances or based on the standard of applications or students (where funds allow).

6. CONCURRENT HOLDING OF AWARDS

A recipient of the Award is permitted to hold concurrent student financial awards as outlined in the ANU coursework scholarships, grants and bursaries procedure.

7. DEFERMENT

The Award cannot be deferred.

8. ONGOING ELIGIBILITY

A recipient of this Award must provide a report to the Donor and the School of Music at the completion of the activities for which the funds have been awarded.

9. CESSATION OF AWARD

The Award ceases or should be surrendered:

- (a) if a recipient fails to complete the projects for which the funds have been awarded; or
- (b) if a recipient breaches academic or behavioural standards set by the University under the Academic Integrity Policy and/or the Discipline Rule; whichever is earliest.

10. REPAYMENT OF FUNDS

Subject to the information available at the time, the College Dean, in consultation with the Head of School may request that the payment for the semester in which the breach of conditions or withdrawal occurs be refunded in part or in full.

11. PROVIDING FALSE OR MISLEADING INFORMATION

Selection for the Award is based on the information provided to the University. The Award may be withdrawn at any stage if incorrect, false or misleading information is provided or relevant information is withheld. This includes circumstances where the false information is unrelated to the assessment for the Award.

12. VARIATION TO CONDITIONS OF AWARD

In exceptional circumstances and on a case-by-case basis section 7 of these Conditions of Award may be varied by the Dean on the recommendation of the Chair of the selection committee.

13. TAXATION

Recipients are responsible for seeking independent taxation advice regarding their own individual circumstances. Student financial awards are regarded as taxable income if a recipient is enrolled on a part-time basis. If you are receiving Centrelink benefits, student financial awards may impact your Centrelink payments.

14. PUBLICITY

The recipient may be requested to participate in publicity for the Award from time to time. This may include publicity in the state or territory of residence or of schooling. Recipients may be contacted for an interview and photograph. The University may also publicise the Award by publishing the names of the recipients. Arrangements for such publicity will be made through the ANU College of Arts and Social Sciences or ANU Communications and Engagement (ACE).

15. DISCLOSURE AND DONOR CONTACT

For the purposes of reporting on the impact of student financial awards, the name, program name and demographics (for example: age, country or town of residence) relating to a recipient of the Award may be disclosed to donors supporting the Award. This will not include recipient contact details. The recipient may be asked to write a personal note of thanks or to meet with donors. Any contact between a donor and a recipient will be facilitated by the ANU Advancement Office or an authorised representative of the University.

16. CONTACT WITH THE AWARD OWNER

All enquiries regarding the Award and changes, issues, or further information after acceptance should be made to:

School of Music, ANU College of Arts and Social Sciences

Email: admin.somad@anu.edu.au

17. DISCLAIMER

The recipient of the Award is subject to The Australian National University Act 1991 as amended, and to the Statutes, Rules, Regulations and Resolutions of the University.

The Award does not carry any commitment by the University for future employment.

These Conditions of Award should be read in conjunction with the University's student financial awards policy and coursework scholarships, grants and bursaries procedure available from the ANU website.
