CONDITIONS OF AWARD

1. INTRODUCTION

Each year the Research School of Economics in the ANU College of Business and Economics ('the College') may offer an award known as the Research School of Economics Bob Gregory Honours in Economics Scholarship for Domestic Students ('the Award').

The objective of the Award is to attract high achieving domestic students to enrol in an Honours in Economics program offered by the Research School of Economics.

Funding for the Award has been provided by the Research School of Economics.

2. BENEFITS

The value of the Award is stated in your letter of offer. The duration of the Award is the length of the recipient's Honours program (48 units maximum). For recipients enrolling in the Bachelor of Finance, Economics and Statistics (Honours), the Award will be applied at the commencement of the Honours year of study (48 units maximum).

The Award consists of two parts:

- 1) A Domestic Student tuition fee waiver which will be applied to the recipient's account at the beginning of each semester; and
- 2) A payment made in two equal instalments after the Census Date of each semester.

Recipients of this Award are responsible for the costs of books, study materials, accommodation and all other costs of study.

3. ELIGIBILITY

The Award is available each year to a prospective or current ANU student who:

- (d) has accepted an offer of admission in the final year of the Honours in Economics program of the Bachelor of Finance, Economics and Statistics, offered at the College.

4. APPLICATION

There is no application as students are automatically considered based on them meeting the eligibility criteria or conditions prescribed under the Eligibility section.

5. SELECTION

Selection is made on the basis of academic merit. Eligible candidates will be ranked according to their Grade Point Average (GPA) or Weighted Average Mark (WAM) calculated from the completed courses upon which eligibility for entry to the Economics Honours program was determined.

The Award is offered to a student by a Selection Committee chaired by the Director, Research School of Economics (or nominee) which will also include the Deputy Director (Education), Research School of Economics (or nominee) and the Honours Program Convener, Research School of Economics (or nominee).

The Selection Committee reserves the right to make no award if it considers there is no applicant of sufficient merit. The Research School of Economics may also vary the number of Awards and/or offer the Award at other times in exceptional circumstances or based on the standard of applications or students (where funds allow).

6. CONCURRENT HOLDING OF AWARDS

A recipient of the Award is permitted to hold concurrent scholarships as outlined in the ANU Coursework Scholarships procedure.

7. DEFERMENT

Recipients are expected to maintain a Weighted Average Mark (WAM) of 70% or above each semester (with the average being taken across all courses taken in a particular semester or session/s overlapping that semester).

If a recipient is unable to achieve the WAM in any semester a formal warning is sent.

If the recipient does not meet the required WAM in a subsequent semester they risk having their Award suspended or terminated.
