

RESEARCH SCHOOL OF FINANCE, ACTUARIAL STUDIES AND STATISTICS INDIA HIGH ACHIEVERS SCHOLARSHIP CONDITIONS OF AWARD

1. INTRODUCTION

Each year the Research School of Finance, Actuarial Studies and Statistics ('RSFAS'), within the ANU College of Business and Economics ('the College'), may offer up to 15 awards known as the Research School of Finance, Actuarial Studies and Statistics India High Achievers Scholarship ('the award').

The objective of the award is to support diversity and to strength education outcomes for students from India. The award acknowledges the quality of students from selected Indian high schools and colleges and aims to meet the RSFAS goal of attracting high quality students.

Funding for this award has been provided by RSFAS.

2. BENEFITS

The value of the scholarship will be stated in the letter of offer. The duration of the award is for the standard full-time duration of the undergraduate or postgraduate program in which the student is enrolled in.

The award will be paid to the recipient in equal instalments, after census date of each semester, unless otherwise stated in the letter of offer.

The recipient is responsible for making payment of their tuition fees by the prescribed date as set out by the University each session. Recipients of this award are responsible for the costs of books, study materials, accommodation and all other costs of study.

3. ELIGIBILITY

The award is available each year to a prospective student who:

- (a) is an international student;
- (b) is a citizen of India;
- (c) has achieved at an excellent level in their final years of schooling and is in the top 10% of the school's graduating cohort from a RSFAS selected high school or college in India; and
- (d) has been granted entry into an undergraduate or postgraduate program offered exclusively by the Research School of Finance, Actuarial Studies and Statistics.

4. APPLICATION

There is no application as students are automatically considered based on them meeting the Eligibility criteria or conditions prescribed under the eligibility and selection sections.

5. SELECTION

Selection is made on the basis of academic merit. Eligible candidates will be ranked by the highest GPA achieved in their respective Program.

The award is offered to students by a Selection Committee chaired by the Director of Education at RSFAS, including an academic staff member from the RSFAS and the Manager of Student Recruitment and Partnerships.

RSFAS reserves the right to make no award if it considers there is no applicant of sufficient merit. RSFAS may also vary the number of awards and/or offer the award at other times in exceptional circumstances or based on the standard of applications or students (where funding allows).

6. CONCURRENT HOLDING OF AWARDS

A recipient of the award is not permitted to concurrently hold other scholarships, awards, grants and bursaries.

Failure to declare and obtain permission to hold another award or scholarship may result in the recipient being required to refund a payment or payments to the College, as determined by the Delegated Authority of the College (or nominee).

7. DEFERMENT

The award cannot be deferred.

8. ONGOING ELIGIBILITY

A recipient of this award is required to enrol in a full-time load of 24 units per semester in one of the programs listed in section 3 (d). A recipient may request permission, in writing, from the Dean of the College (or nominee) to hold the award on a part-time basis.

Recipients are expected to maintain a 70% weighted average mark (WAM) each semester (with the average being across all courses taken in a particular semester).

If a recipient is unable to achieve the required WAM in any semester a formal warning letter is sent to the recipient's campus email account.

If the recipient does not meet the required WAM in a subsequent semester they risk having their award suspended or terminated.

A recipient is given the opportunity to explain their performance and how their performance can be remedied before a decision on the suspension or termination of an award is made.

9. CESSATION OF AWARD

The award ceases or should be surrendered:

- (a) at the conclusion of the period outlined in section 2; or
- (b) on the date on which the recipient withdraws or ceases to attend the University other than for approved absences;
- (c) if a recipient fails to enrol as required in section 8;
- (d) if a recipient changes to part-time enrolment without permission;
- (e) if a recipient changes their program outside of RSFAS;
- (f) if a recipient fails to meet the minimum academic performance requirements;
- (g) if a recipient breaches academic or behavioural standards set by the University under the Academic Misconduct & Discipline Rules;

whichever is earliest.

10. REPAYMENT OF FUNDS

Subject to the information available at the time, Dean of the College (or nominee) may request that the payment for the semester in which the breach of conditions or withdrawal occurs be refunded in part or in full.

11. PROVIDING FALSE OR MISLEADING INFORMATION

The awarding of a scholarship is based on the information provided to the University. An award may be withdrawn at any stage if incorrect, false or misleading information is provided or relevant information is withheld. This includes circumstances where the false information is unrelated to the assessment in awarding the scholarship.

12. VARIATION TO CONDITIONS OF AWARD

In exceptional circumstances and on a case-by-case basis section 6 and/or 7 of these conditions of award may be varied by the Dean of the College on the recommendation of the Chair of Selection Committee.

13. TAXATION

Recipients are responsible for seeking taxation advice regarding their own individual circumstances. Scholarships may be regarded as taxable income if a recipient is enrolled on a part-time basis.

14. ACCOMMODATION

It is the recipient's responsibility to obtain residential accommodation. Information on student accommodation and application forms are available from the University Accommodation Services. Information may be found on the Web at:

<http://study.anu.edu.au/accommodation>

15. PUBLICITY

The recipient may be requested to participate in publicity for the award from time to time. This may include publicity in the state, territory or country of residence or of schooling. Recipients may be contacted for an interview and photograph. The University may also publicise the award by publishing the names of the recipients. Arrangements for such publicity will be made through the ANU College of Business and Economics, Communication and Outreach Department or Strategic Communications and Public Affairs Office of the University.

16. CONTACT WITH THE COLLEGE

All enquiries regarding the award and changes, issues, or further information after acceptance should be made to:
