RSFAS MASTER OF FINANCIAL ECONOMICS SCHOLARSHIP CONDITIONS OF AWARD

1. INTRODUCTION

Each year the Research School of Finance, Actuarial Studies and Statistics ('RSFAS') within the ANU College of Business and Economics ('the College') may offer a number of awards known as the RSFAS Master of Financial Economics Scholarship ('the Award').

The objective of the Award is to recruit high calibre students into the Master of Financial Economics program.

Funding for this Award has been provided by RSFAS.

2. BENEFITS

The value of the Award is stated in your letter of offer. The duration of the Award is for one year. The Award is paid in equal instalments after census date each semester unless otherwise stated in the letter of offer.

The recipient is responsible for making payment of all tuition fees by the prescribed date as set out by the University each session. Recipients of the Award are responsible for the costs of books, study materials, accommodation and all other costs of study.

3. ELIGIBILITY

The Award is available each year to a commencing ANU student who:

- (a) is a domestic student; and
- (b) receives an offer of admission to the Master of Financial Economics offered by RSFAS.

4. APPLICATION

There is no application as students are automatically considered based on them meeting the eligibility criteria or conditions prescribed under the Eligibility section.

5. SELECTION

Only eligible applicants will be considered for the Award.

Selection is made on the basis of applicants meeting the eligibility criteria and academic merit.

The Award is offered to a student by a selection committee chaired by the Director of RSFAS which will also include the Deputy Director of RSFAS and the Program Convener.

RSFAS reserves the right to make no award if it considers there is no applicant of sufficient merit. RSFAS may also vary the number of Awards and/or offer the Award at other times in exceptional circumstances or based on the standard of applications or students (where funds allow).

6. CONCURRENT HOLDING OF AWARDS

A recipient of the Award is permitted to hold concurrent student financial awards as outlined in the ANU coursework scholarships, grants and bursaries procedure.

A recipient requests permission, in writing, from the College Dean (or nominee) to hold the Award on a part-time basis. If approved, payments of the Award will be made on a pro-rata basis.

Recipients are expected to maintain a Grade Point Average (GPA) of 5.0 or above each semester (with the average being across all courses taken in a particular semester or session/s overlapping that semester).

If a recipient is unable to achieve the GPA in any semester a formal warning is sent.

whichever is earliest.

Subject to the information available at the time, the College Dean (or nominee) may request that the payment for the semester in which the breach of conditions or withdrawal occurs be refunded in part or in full.

11. PROVIDING FALSE OR MISLEADING INFORMATION
