GOWRIE BURSARY CONDITIONS OF AWARD

1. INTRODUCTION

Each year the Australian National University ('the University') may offer a number of awards known as the Gowrie Bursary ('the Award'). The Award given to the top-ranked candidate will be known as the Gowrie – Patrick Hore-Ruthven Memorial Bursary.

The objective of the Award is to support postgraduate students to complete a research-based degree program at universities or recognised research institutions in Australia or overseas.

Funding for this Award is derived from the Gowrie Scholarship Trust Fund, which was established on December 31st 1943, the administration of which was subsequently passed by the Gowrie Trust to the University. The fund maintains bursaries in perpetual memory of those Australian men and women who gave their lives for their country in the Second World War. The Gowrie Bursaries are named after Brigadier General The Right Honourable Alexander Gore Arkwright Hore-Ruthven, The Earl of Gowrie VC, GCMG, CB, DSO & Bar, PC and his son, Major Patrick Hore-Ruthven who died on 24th December 1942 of wounds received in Tripolitania.

2. BENEFITS

The value of the Award is stated in your letter of offer. The duration of the Award is for up to one year. The Award is paid in one instalment on confirmation of enrolment unless otherwise stated in the letter of offer.

The recipient is responsible for making payment of all tuition fees by the prescribed date as set out by the home institution each session. Recipients of the Award are responsible for the costs of books, study materials, accommodation and all other costs of study.

3. ELIGIBILITY

The Award is available each year to Australian citizens who:

The application and all supporting documentation (where applicable) must be submitted on or prior to the closing date published on the ANU Scholarships website.

5. SELECTION

Selection is made on the basis of the answers supplied in the application. When making a selection, the selection committee will take into consideration:

- level of financial hardship demonstrated;

- the impact on their lives resulting from their, or their forebear's, service in the Australian Defence Force.

Acknowledging the genesis of the Award, special consideration will be given to lineal descendants of members of the Australian Defence Force who died as a result of any occurrence which happened while serving in the Second World War or subsequent wars or non-warlike operations such as peacekeeping or humanitarian operations.

The Award is offered to a student by the Gowrie Bursary selection committee.

The selection committee reserves the right to make no award if it considers there is no applicant of sufficient merit. The selection committee may also vary the number of Awards and/or offer the Award at other times in exceptional circumstances or based on the standard of applications or students (where funds allow).
