SQUIRE PATTON BOGGS BURSARY CONDITIONS OF AWARD

1. INTRODUCTION

Each semester the ANU College of Law, Governance and Policy ('the College') may offer a number of awards known as the Squire Patton Boggs Bursary ('the Award').

The objective of the Award is to provide financial assistance to ANU College of Law, Governance and Policy students who are experiencing financial hardship whilst they are studying at ANU, and to assist with the cost of day-to-day expenses of essential items, such as food and hygienic items.

Funding for this Award has been provided by the law firm Squire Patton Boggs.

2. BENEFITS

The value of the Award is stated in your letter of offer. The Award is paid in a one-off instalment upon accepting the Award unless otherwise stated in the letter of offer.

The recipient is responsible for making payment of all tuition fees by the prescribed date as set out by the University each session. Recipients of the Award are responsible for the costs of books, study materials, accommodation and all other costs of study.

3. ELIGIBILITY

The Award is available each semester to a continuing ANU student who (at the time of application):

- (a) is a domestic or international student;
- (b) is enrolled in one of the following programs at the ANU College of Law, Governance and Policy:
 - Bachelor of Laws (Honours) - single or flexible double degree
 - Juris Doctor
 - Master of Laws
 - Graduate Certificate of Law
 - Graduate Certificate of New Technologies Law
 - Master of Financial Management and Law
 - Master of International Law and Diplomacy
- (c) is enrolled in a law course for the study period they are applying for; and
- (d) is able to demonstrate financial hardship.

4. APPLICATION

The application is submitted on the prescribed form. Any requirement for supporting documentation and forwarding details will be stated on the application form and/or ANU Scholarships website. The application and all supporting documentation (where applicable) must be submitted on or prior to the closing date published on the ANU Scholarships website.

Squire Patton Boggs Bursary (69/2025)

To ensure fairness, students may only apply for the Squire Patton Boggs Bursary once per semester.

5. SELECTION

Only applicants who meet all the eligibility criteria will be considered. Selection is made on the basis of the demonstrated financial hardship submitted in the application. Where there are more equally ranked applicants than there are Awards available, preference may be given to an applicant, in order of priority:

1. With Indigenous status
2. Who has not been awarded the award previously
3. Who is from a regional or rural background.

The Award is offered to a student by a selection committee chaired by the Dean of ANU College of Law, Governance and Policy (or nominee), which will also include two staff members of the ANU College of Law, Governance and Policy.

The selection committee reserves the right to make no award if it considers there is no applicant of sufficient merit. The selection committee may also vary the number of Awards and/or offer the Award at other times in exceptional circumstances or based on the standard of applications or students (where funds allow).

6. CONCURRENT HOLDING OF AWARDS

A recipient of the Award is permitted to hold concurrent student financial awards as outlined in the ANU coursework scholarships, grants and bursaries procedure.

7. DEFERMENT

The Award cannot be deferred.

8. ONGOING ELIGIBILITY

A recipient of this Award is required to remain enrolled in their program or course in the semester in which the Award was granted.

9. CESSATION OF AWARD

The Award ceases or should be surrendered:

- (a) if a student no longer meets the eligibility requirements;
- (b) on the date on which the recipient withdraws or ceases to attend the University other than for approved absences;
- (c) if a recipient fails to enrol as required in section 8;
- (d) if a recipient breaches academic or behavioural standards set by the University under the Academic Integrity Policy and/or the Discipline Rule;

whichever is earliest.

10. REPAYMENT OF FUNDS

Subject to the information available at the time, the Dean of the ANU College of Law, Governance and Policy (or nominee) may request that the payment for the semester in which the breach of conditions or withdrawal occurs be refunded in part or in full.

11. PROVIDING FALSE OR MISLEADING INFORMATION

Selection for the Award is based on the information provided to the University. The Award may be withdrawn at any stage if incorrect, false or misleading information is provided or relevant information is withheld. This includes circumstances where the false information is unrelated to the assessment for the Award.

12. VARIATION TO CONDITIONS OF AWARD

In exceptional circumstances and on a case-by-case basis section 7 of these Conditions of Award may be varied by the Dean of ANU College of Law, Governance and Policy (or nominee).

13. TAXATION

Recipients are responsible for seeking independent taxation advice regarding their own individual circumstances. Recipients receiving Centrelink benefits should be aware that student financial awards may affect their Centrelink payments. Student financial awards are regarded as taxable income if a recipient is enrolled on a part-time basis.

15. PUBLICITY

The recipient may be requested to participate in publicity for the Award from time to time. This may include publicity in the state or territory of residence or of schooling. Recipients may be contacted for an interview and photograph. The University may also publicise the Award by publishing the names of the recipients. Arrangements for such publicity will be made through the ANU College of Law, Governance and Policy or ANU Communications and Engagement (ACE).

16. DISCLOSURE AND DONOR CONTACT

For the purposes of reporting on the impact of student financial awards, the name, program name and demographics (for example: age, country or town of residence) relating to a recipient of the Award may be disclosed to donors supporting the Award. This will not include recipient contact details. The recipient may be asked to write a personal note of thanks or to meet with donors. Any contact between a donor and a recipient will be facilitated by the ANU Advancement Office or an authorised representative of the University.

17. CONTACT WITH THE AWARD OWNER

All enquiries regarding the Award and changes, issues, or further information after acceptance should be made to:

College Student and Education Support, ANU College of Law, Governance and Policy

Email: enquiries.clgp@anu.edu.au

18. DISCLAIMER

The recipient of the Award is subject to The Australian National University Act 1991 as amended, and to the Statutes, Rules, Regulations, Policies and Procedures of the University.

The Award does not carry any commitment by the University for future employment.

These Conditions of Award should be read in conjunction with the University's student financial awards policy and coursework scholarships, grants and bursaries procedure available from the ANU website.
