THE GEORGE AND CELESTE VALLANCE BURSARY

CONDITIONS OF AWARD

1. INTRODUCTION

Each year, the College of Law, Governance and Policy ('the College') may offer an award known as the George and Celeste Vallance Bursary ('the Award').

The objective of the Award is to provide financial support to a student who identifies as a member of the LGBTIQ+ community, and who is experiencing financial hardship.

Funding for this Award has been provided by George and Celeste Vallance. George (they/them) and Celeste (she/her) are ANU Alumni and proud member of the LGBTIQ+ community.

2. BENEFITS

The value of the Award is stated in your letter of offer. The Award is paid in a one-off instalment upon accepting the Award unless otherwise stated in the letter of offer.

The recipient is responsible for making payment of all tuition fees by the prescribed date as set out by the University each session. Recipients of the Award are responsible for the costs of books, study materials, accommodation and all other costs of study.

3. ELIGIBILITY

The Award is available each year to a continuing ANU student who:

- (a) is a domestic student;
- (b) is enrolled full-time or part-time in one of the following programs at the ANU College of Law, Governance and Policy:

- (d) is able to demonstrate financial hardship.

4. APPLICATION

The application is submitted on the prescribed form. Any requirement for supporting documentation and forwarding details will be stated on the application form and/or ANU Scholarships website. The application and all supporting documentation (where applicable) must be submitted on or prior to the closing date published on the ANU Scholarships website.

5. SELECTION

Only applicants who meet all the eligibility criteria will be considered. Selection is made based on the financial hardship demonstrated in the Award application. Where there are more equally ranked applicants than there are Awards available, preference may be given to, in order of priority:

- an applicant who has not been awarded the Award previously,

- student who identifies as transgender, non-binary and/or gender diverse;
- student from a regional or rural background.

The Award is offered to a student by a Selection Committee chaired by the Dean of the ANU College of Law, Governance and Policy (or nominee) which will also include two staff members from the ANU College of Law, Governance and Policy.

The Selection Committee reserves the right to make no award if it considers there is no applicant of sufficient merit. The Selection Committee may also vary the number of Awards and/or offer the Award at other times in exceptional circumstances or based on the standard of applications or students (where funds allow).
