FROHLICH WORLD BANK TRAVEL GRANT CONDITIONS OF AWARD

1. INTRODUCTION

Each year, the ANU College of Law, Governance and Policy ('the College') may offer an award known as the Frohlich World Bank Travel Grant ('the Award').

The objective of the Award is to provide financial support for the recipient to pursue an opportunity to gain realistic, high-level and varied legal work experience, through a supervised internship of six months with the Special Litigation Unit at the World Bank's headquarters in Washington DC, United States (INT).

Funding for this Award has been provided by the Frohlich Endowment in Law.

2. BENEFITS

The value of the Award is stated in your letter of offer. The Award is paid in a one-off instalment upon accepting the Award unless otherwise stated in the letter of offer.

The recipient is responsible for organising their passport, visa if travelling internationally and insurance, and other costs involved in travel with undertaking the opportunity.

The recipient is responsible for making payment of all tuition fees by the prescribed date as set out by the University each session. Recipients of the Award are responsible for the costs of books, study materials, accommodation and all other costs of study.

3. ELIGIBILITY

The Award is available each year to a continuing ANU student who (at the time of application):

- (a) is a domestic or international student;
- (b) is enrolled full time in the Bachelor of Laws (Hons) at the ANU College of Law, Governance and Policy, whether undertaking as a single or flexible double degree, and has successfully completed at least 90 units of LAWS coded courses; or
- (c) is enrolled full time in the Juris Doctor (JD) degree at the ANU College of Law, Governance and Policy and has successfully completed at least 90 units of LAWS coded courses;
- (d) is a citizen of one of the World Bank Group member countries; and
- (e) has a strong academic record and demonstrated capacity to successfully undertake an internship with an international organisation.

4. APPLICATION

The application is submitted on the prescribed form. Any requirement for supporting documentation and forwarding details will be stated on the application form and/or ANU Scholarships website. The application and all supporting documentation (where applicable) must be submitted on or before the closing date published on the ANU scholarships website.

5. SELECTION

Only applicants who meet all the eligibility criteria will be considered. Selection is made based on academic merit, performance in LAWS-coded courses completed at the time of application, and the suitability of the candidate for the role based on the information provided in their application.

Additional factors such as demonstrated interest or experience in international law and development, and past experience working in a multicultural environment may be taken into consideration.

Where there are more equally ranked applicants than there are Awards available, preference may be given to an applicant, in order of priority:

1. who can demonstrate fluency in a foreign language.
2. who has not previously been awarded a travel grant from the College.
3. from a regional or rural background.

The Award is offered to a student by the Selection Committee chaired by the Dean of the ANU College of Law, Governance and Policy (or nominee), which will include a minimum of two academic members of staff of the ANU College of Law, Governance and Policy.

From those who apply, the ANU College of Law, Governance and Policy Selection Committee will typically nominate at least two applicants to put forward to the INT (World Bank). The Award is given to the candidate selected by the INT to undertake the internship and receive the travel grant.

The INT and/or the ANU College of Law, Governance and Policy reserve the right to make no award if it considers there is no applicant of sufficient merit. The ANU College of Law, Governance and Policy may also vary the number of Awards and/or offer the Award at other times in exceptional circumstances or based on the standard of applications or students (where funds allow).

6. CONCURRENT HOLDING OF AWARDS

A recipient of the Award is permitted to hold concurrent student financial awards as outlined in the ANU coursework scholarships, grants and bursaries procedure.

7. DEFERMENT

The Award cannot be deferred.

8. ONGOING ELIGIBILITY

A recipient of this Award is required to remain active at the Australian National University in their law program and complete the internship program.

9. CESSATION OF AWARD

The Award ceases or should be surrendered:

- (a) if a student no longer meets the eligibility requirements;
- (b) on the date on which the recipient withdraws or ceases to attend the University other than for approved absences;
- (c) if a recipient fails to meet the requirements in section 8;
- (d) if a recipient changes their program or course without permission to retain the Award;
- (e) If the recipient breaches the Academic and behavioural standards set by the World Bank (INT);

- (f) if a recipient breaks the law in Washington or breaches academic or behavioural standards set by the University under the Academic Integrity Policy and/or Discipline Rule;
- (g) if it is identified that the recipient has breached the financial cap for student financial awards (including scholarships, grants, and bursaries), as outlined in the University's Scholarships Policy;

whichever is earliest.

10. REPAYMENT OF FUNDS

Subject to the information available at the time, the Dean of the ANU College of Law, Governance and Policy (or nominee) may request that the payment for the semester in which the breach of conditions or withdrawal occurs be refunded in part or in full.

11. PROVIDING FALSE OR MISLEADING INFORMATION

The Award is based on the information provided to the University. The Award may be withdrawn at any stage if incorrect, false or misleading information is provided or relevant information is withheld. This includes circumstances where the false information is unrelated to the assessment for the Award.

12. TAXATION & CENTRELINK

Recipients are responsible for seeking independent taxation advice regarding their own individual circumstances. Recipients receiving Centrelink benefits should be aware that student financial awards may affect their Centrelink payments. Student financial awards are generally regarded as taxable income if a recipient is enrolled on a part-time basis.

13. ACCOMMODATION

It is the recipient's responsibility to obtain residential accommodation.

14. PUBLICITY

The recipient may be requested to participate in publicity for the Award from time to time. This may include publicity in the state or territory of residence or of schooling. Recipients may be contacted for an interview and photograph. The University may also publicise the Award by publishing the names of the recipients. Arrangements for such publicity will be made through the ANU College of Law, Governance and Policy or the ANU Marketing and Communications Division.

15. PRIVACY CONSENT

The Scholar agrees that ANU may share their personal information (as defined in the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth)) with the Selection Committee to evaluate applications and make selection decisions. This means that the Scholar agrees to relevant personal information being shared with Committee members external to the University as detailed in section 5 to evaluate applications and make selection decisions. The University will take reasonable measures to ensure the Selection Committee complies with the Australian Privacy Principles when handling Scholars' personal information.

16. DISCLOSURE AND DONOR CONTACT

For the purposes of reporting on the impact of awards, the name, program name and demographics (for example: age, country or town of residence) relating to a recipient of the Award may be disclosed to donors supporting the Award. This will not include recipient contact details. The recipient may be asked to write a personal note of thanks or to meet with donors. Any contact between a donor and a recipient will be facilitated by the ANU Advancement Office or an authorised representative of the University.

17. CONTACT WITH THE AWARD OWNER

All enquiries regarding the Award and changes, issues, or further information after acceptance should be made to:

College Student and Education Support, ANU College of Law, Governance and Policy
Email: enquiries.clgp@anu.edu.au

18. DISCLAIMER

The recipient of the Award is subject to The Australian National University Act 1991 as amended, and to the Statutes, Rules, Regulations, Policies and Procedures of the University.

The Award does not carry any commitment by the University for future employment.

These Conditions of Award should be read in conjunction with the University's Student financial awards Policy and Coursework Scholarships Procedure available from the ANU website.
