Australian National Internships Program (ANIP)	Australian National Internships Program allows for students to undertake an internship with government agencies, diplomatic missions, NGOs and think tanks for academic credit. ANIP internships are open to current undergraduate and postgraduate Exchange and Study Abroad students from all academic disciplines. A separate application provided directly to the ANIP is required for access to this program. For more information and application guidance and deadlines please see https://anip.anu.edu.au/
CBEA3001 - Special Industry Project Course (SIP)	The Special Industry Project (SIP), a work-integrated learning course at the ANU College of Business and Economics (CBE), has contributed to solving business cases presented by organisations across Australia. Mimicking the real-world consulting environment, students enrolled in SIP take on a consulting role, working in teams to devise the best solution to a business case. Every semester, undergraduate students across The Australian National University (ANU) have the unique opportunity to participate in SIP. They work closely with two industry partners – a business client, who provides the business case, and a team of mentors, who coach the participants. A separate application provided directly to the SIP is required for access to this program. For more information and application guidance and deadlines please see https://cbe.anu.edu.au/current-students/opportunities-and-careers/special-industry-project-course
