FROHLICH TRAVEL GRANT TO SUPPORT THE PERMANENT COURT OF ARBITRATION (PCA) FELLOWSHIP

CONDITIONS OF AWARD

1. INTRODUCTION

Each year, the ANU Law School ('the School') within the ANU College of Law, Governance and Policy ('the College') may offer an award known as the Frohlich Travel Grant to support the Permanent Court of Arbitration (PCA) Fellowship ('the Award').

The objective of the Award is to provide support to a current student or graduate of the ANU College of Law, Governance and Policy, undertaking a 12-month Fellowship with the Permanent Court of Arbitration (PCA) in The Hague, Netherlands.

Funding for this Award has been provided by the Frohlich Endowment in Law.

2. BENEFITS

The value of the Award is stated in the letter of offer. The Award is paid in a one-off payment upon accepting the Award unless otherwise stated in the letter of offer.

The recipient is responsible for organising their passport, visa and insurance, and other costs involved with this opportunity.

The recipient is responsible for making payment of all tuition fees by the prescribed date as set out by the University each session. Recipients of the Award are responsible for the costs of books, study materials, accommodation and all other costs of study.

3. ELIGIBILITY

The Award is available each year to a continuing ANU student or recent graduate who (at the time of application):

- (a) is a domestic or international student;
- (b) is enrolled in one of the following programs at the ANU College of Law, Governance and Policy:
 - Bachelor of Laws (Honours) as a single degree and has completed at least 138 units;
 - Bachelor of Laws (Honours) as part of a Flexible Double Degree (FDD Law) and has completed at least 186 units;
 - Juris Doctor (JD) and has completed at least 90 units; and
- (c) graduated from the LLB(Hons) or JD from the ANU Law School in the last five years.

4. APPLICATION

The application is submitted on the prescribed form. Any requirement for supporting documentation and forwarding details will be stated on the application form and/or ANU Scholarships website. The application and all supporting documentation (where applicable) must be submitted on or before the closing date published on the ANU scholarships website.

5. SELECTION

Only applicants who meet all the eligibility criteria will be considered. Selection is made based on the overall academic performance in law courses, paying particular attention to achievements in international law. Other factors, such as experience in practice and/or research in international law, may be taken into consideration.

Where there are more equally ranked applicants than there are Awards available, preference may be given, in order of priority, to an applicant:

1. Who has not previously been awarded a travel grant from the College.
2. With the highest overall career GPA.

The Award is offered to a student by a Selection Committee chaired by the Dean of ANU College of Law, Governance and Policy (or nominee), which will also include two academic staff members of the ANU College of Law, Governance and Policy.

The ANU Selection Committee will typically nominate at least two candidates to forward to the PCA for final selection. The Award is given to the candidate selected by the PCA to undertake the Fellowship.

The PCA and/or the ANU College of Law, Governance and Policy reserve the right to make no award if it considers there is no applicant from ANU of sufficient merit. The Selection Committee may also vary the number of Awards and/or offer the Award at other times in exceptional circumstances or based on the standard of applications or students (where funds allow).

6. CONCURRENT HOLDING OF AWARDS

A recipient of the Award is permitted to hold concurrent student financial awards as outlined in the ANU Coursework Scholarships procedure.

7. DEFERMENT

The Award cannot be deferred.

8. ONGOING ELIGIBILITY

A recipient of this Award is required to complete the fellowship the Award was given to support.

9. CESSATION OF AWARD

The Award ceases or should be surrendered:

- (a) if the recipient no longer meets the eligibility requirements;
- (b) if a recipient fails to complete the Fellowship program as required in section 8;
- (c) if the recipient breaches academic or behavioural standards set by the PCA;
- (d) if the recipient breaks the law in the Netherlands or breaches academic or behavioural standards set by the University under the Student academic integrity Policy and/or the Discipline Rule;
- (e) if it is identified that the recipient has breached the financial cap for student financial awards (including scholarships, grants, and bursaries), as outlined in the University's Scholarships Policy;

whichever is earliest.

10. REPAYMENT OF FUNDS

Subject to the information available at the time, the Dean of the ANU College of Law, Governance and Policy (or nominee) may request that the payment for the award be refunded in part or in full, if there is a breach of conditions or cessation of the award under section 8. If such a request is made by the Dean, the recipient must repay the amount determined by the Dean.

11. PROVIDING FALSE OR MISLEADING INFORMATION

The Award is based on the information provided to the University. The Award may be withdrawn at any stage if incorrect, false or misleading information is provided or relevant information is withheld. This includes circumstances where the false information is unrelated to the assessment for the Award.

12. VARIATION TO CONDITIONS OF AWARD

In exceptional circumstances and on a case-by-case basis, section 7 of these Conditions of Award may be varied by the Dean of the ANU College of Law, Governance and Policy (or nominee).

13. TAXATION

Recipients are responsible for seeking independent taxation advice regarding their own individual circumstances. Recipients receiving Centrelink benefits should be aware that student financial awards may affect their Centrelink payments. Student financial awards are generally regarded as taxable income if a recipient is enrolled on a part-time basis.

14. ACCOMMODATION

It is the recipient's responsibility to obtain residential accommodation.

15. PUBLICITY

The recipient may be requested to participate in publicity for the Award from time to time. This may include publicity in the state or territory of residence or of schooling. Recipients may be contacted for an interview and photograph. The University may also publicise the Award by publishing the names of the recipients. Arrangements for such publicity will be made through the ANU College of Law, Governance and Policy or the ANU Marketing and Communications Division.

16. PRIVACY CONSENT

The Scholar agrees that ANU may share their personal information (as defined in the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth)) with the Selection Committee to evaluate applications and make selection decisions. This means that the Scholar agrees to relevant personal information being shared with Committee members external to the University as detailed in section 5 to evaluate applications and make selection decisions. The University will take reasonable measures to ensure the Selection Committee complies with the Australian Privacy Principles when handling Scholars' personal information.

17. DISCLOSURE AND DONOR CONTACT

For the purposes of reporting on the impact of awards, the name, program name and demographics (for example: age, country or town of residence) relating to a recipient of the Award may be disclosed to donors supporting the Award. This will not include recipient contact details. The recipient may be asked to write a personal note of thanks or to meet with donors. Any contact between a donor and a recipient will be facilitated by the ANU Advancement Office or an authorised representative of the University.

18. CONTACT WITH THE AWARD OWNER

All enquiries regarding the Award and changes, issues, or further information after acceptance should be made to:

College Student and Education Support, ANU College of Law, Governance and Policy
Email: enquiries.clgp@anu.edu.au

19. DISCLAIMER

The recipient of the Award is subject to The Australian National University Act 1991 as amended, and to the Statutes, Rules, Regulations, Policies and Procedures of the University.

The Award does not carry any commitment by the University for future employment.

These Conditions of Award should be read in conjunction with the University's Student financial awards Policy and Coursework Scholarships Procedure available from the ANU website.
