DEAN'S INTERNATIONAL SCIENCE EXCELLENCE GRANT CONDITIONS OF AWARD

1. INTRODUCTION

The ANU College of Science and Medicine ('the College') may offer a number of awards known as the Dean's International Science Excellence Grant ('the Award').

The objective of the Award is to attract outstanding international students from the Colleges' institutional partners, fostering academic excellence and global collaboration.

Funding for this Award is provided by the ANU College of Science and Medicine.

2. BENEFITS

The value of the Award is stated in your letter of offer. The Award is paid in a one-off instalment after the census date each semester unless otherwise stated in the letter of offer.

The student is responsible for payment of all tuition fees by the prescribed date as set out by the University each session. All costs for books, study materials, accommodation, and other study-related expenses are the responsibility of the student.

3. ELIGIBILITY

The Award is available to a commencing ANU student who:

- (a) is an international student;
- (b) undertaking undergraduate or postgraduate studies at an institute which has an articulation agreement with the College. List of the College's articulation partners can be found here: <https://science.anu.edu.au/articulation-partnerships-credit-arrangements-admission-pathways>; and
- (c) receives an offer of admission to an undergraduate or postgraduate program offered by the ANU College of Science and Medicine; and
- (d) has a career GPA of 5.0 or higher (or equivalent).

4. APPLICATION

The application is submitted on the prescribed form. Any requirement for supporting documentation and forwarding details will be stated on the application form and/or ANU Scholarships website. The application and all supporting documentation (where applicable) must be submitted on or before the closing date published on the ANU Scholarships website.

To ensure fairness, students may only apply once per semester/year.

5. SELECTION

Only applicants who meet all the eligibility criteria will be considered. Selection is made based on academic merit.

The Award is offered to a student by a Selection Committee chaired by the Associate Dean of Education, ANU College of Science and Medicine which will also include two academic staff members from the same College.

The Selection Committee reserves the right to make no award if it considers there is no applicant of sufficient merit. The Selection Committee may also vary the number of awards and/or offer the award at other times in exceptional circumstances or based on the standard of applications or students (where funds allow).

6. CONCURRENT HOLDING OF AWARDS

A student of the Award is permitted to hold concurrent student financial awards as outlined in the ANU scholarships, grants and bursaries (coursework) procedure.

7. DEFERMENT

The Award cannot be deferred.

8. CESSATION OF AWARD

The Award ceases or should be surrendered:

- (a) if a student no longer meets the eligibility requirements;
- (b) on the date on which the student withdraws or ceases to attend the University other than for approved absences;
- (c) if a student changes to part-time enrolment without receiving permission to retain the Award;
- (d) if a student changes the program or course without permission to retain the Award;
- (e) if a student fails to meet the minimum academic performance requirements; or
- (f) if a student breaches academic or behavioural standards set by the University under the Student academic integrity Policy and/or the Discipline Rule;
- (g) if it is identified that the student has breached the financial cap for student financial awards (including scholarships, grants, and bursaries), as outlined in the University's Student financial awards policy

whichever is earliest.

9. REPAYMENT OF FUNDS

Subject to the information available at the time, the Dean, ANU College of Science and Medicine or approved nominee may request that the payment for the semester in which the breach of conditions or withdrawal occurs be refunded in part or in full.

10. PROVIDING FALSE OR MISLEADING INFORMATION

Selection for the Award is based on the information provided to the University. The Award may be withdrawn at any stage if incorrect, false or misleading information is provided or relevant information is withheld. This includes circumstances where the false information is unrelated to the assessment for the Award.

11. VARIATION TO CONDITIONS OF AWARD

In exceptional circumstances and on a case-by-case basis, section 7 of these Conditions of Award may be varied by the Dean, ANU College of Science and Medicine, on the recommendation of the Chair of the Selection Committee.

12. TAXATION

Students are responsible for seeking independent taxation advice regarding individual circumstances. Students receiving Centrelink benefits should be aware that student financial awards may affect Centrelink payments. Student financial awards are generally regarded as taxable income if a student is enrolled on a part-time basis.
