ANU COLLEGE OF BUSINESS AND ECONOMICS CHANGING FUTURES SCHOLARSHIP

CONDITIONS OF AWARD

1. INTRODUCTION

In 2023, the ANU College of Business and Economics ('the College') may offer an award known as the ANU College of Business and Economics Changing Futures Scholarship ('the Award').

The objectives of the Award are to strengthen educational outcomes for students, both in terms of skills development and preparation for further study or employment, and to raise awareness of the acute disadvantages that some students face in accessing university education.

Funding for this Award has been provided by donors to the ANU College of Business and Economics Changing Futures Scholarship fund.

2. BENEFITS

The value of the Award is stated in your letter of offer. The duration of the Award is for up to three years of full-time study; in the case of a flexible double degree then the Award will be paid for the first 144 units undertaken. The Award payment will align to the recipient's academic study load. For example, enrolment in 24 units constitutes 100% of the Award payment; enrolment in 18 units constitutes 75% of the Award payment, etc. The Award is paid at the beginning of each semester unless otherwise stated in the letter of offer.

The recipient is responsible for making payment of all tuition fees by the prescribed date as set out by the University each session. Recipients of the Award are responsible for the costs of books, study materials, accommodation and all other costs of study.

3. ELIGIBILITY

The Award is available to a commencing ANU student who:

- (a) is an Australian citizen, Australian permanent resident, New Zealand citizen (or a dual citizenship holder of either Australia or New Zealand) or Australian humanitarian visa holders; and
- (b) a current school leaver in Australia at an Australian High School (or College); and
- (c) receives an offer of admission to and enrolls in a single or flexible double undergraduate coursework program with at least one program offered by the College; and
- (d) is eligible and receives adjustment factors for financial hardship.

4. APPLICATION

All applicants applying for admission through the ANU Admission Scholarship and Accommodation Application System will be automatically considered for the Award based on them meeting the eligibility criteria and electing to be considered for scholarships.

5. SELECTION

Selection is made on the basis of applicants meeting the eligibility criteria and the severity of financial hardship demonstrated. Where there are more equally ranked candidates than there are Awards available, selection will be based on (in order of priority):

- Lowest SEIFA
- Refugee status
- Adjustment factors for severe family disruption
- Total number of adjustment factors

The Award is offered to a student by the University Coursework Scholarships Committee. Details of this committee are outlined in the ANU Coursework Scholarships procedure.

The selection committee reserves the right to make no award if it considers there is no applicant of sufficient merit. The selection committee may also vary the number of Awards and/or offer the Award at other times in exceptional circumstances or based on the standard of applications or students (where funds allow).

6. CONCURRENT HOLDING OF AWARDS

A recipient of the Award is permitted to hold concurrent student financial awards as outlined in the ANU Coursework Scholarships procedure.

7. DEFERMENT

The Award cannot be deferred.

8. ONGOING ELIGIBILITY

A recipient of this Award may enrol in a full-time load (18 to 24 units) or part-time basis (minimum 6 units) each semester. A recipient requests permission, in writing, from the College Associate Dean (Education) to hold the Award on a part-time basis.

Recipients are expected to pass all courses each semester or session.

If a recipient does not pass all enrolled courses in any semester or session a formal warning is sent.

If the recipient does not pass all enrolled courses in a subsequent semester or session they risk having their Award suspended or terminated.

A recipient is given the opportunity to explain their performance and how their performance can be remedied before a decision on the suspension or termination of an Award is made.

9. CESSATION OF AWARD

The Award ceases or should be surrendered:

- (a) if a student no longer meets the eligibility requirements;
- (b) at the conclusion of the period outlined in section 2;
- (c) on the date on which the recipient withdraws or ceases to attend the University other than for approved absences;
- (d) if a recipient fails to enrol as required in section 8;
- (e) if a recipient transfers to a program not offered by the ANU College of Business and Economics;
- (f) if a recipient fails to meet the minimum academic performance requirements; or
- (g) if a recipient breaches academic or behavioural standards set by the University under the Academic Integrity Policy and/or the Discipline Rule;

whichever is earliest.

10. REPAYMENT OF FUNDS

Subject to the information available at the time, the Dean of the College (or nominee) may request that the payment for the semester in which the breach of conditions or withdrawal occurs be refunded in part or in full.

11. PROVIDING FALSE OR MISLEADING INFORMATION

Selection for the Award is based on the information provided to the University. The Award may be withdrawn at any stage if incorrect, false or misleading information is provided or relevant information is withheld. This includes circumstances where the false information is unrelated to the assessment for the Award.

12. TAXATION

Recipients are responsible for seeking independent taxation advice regarding their own individual circumstances. Student financial awards are regarded as taxable income if a recipient is enrolled on a part-time basis. If you are receiving Centrelink benefits, student financial awards may impact your Centrelink payments.

13. ACCOMMODATION

It is the recipient's responsibility to obtain residential accommodation. Information on student accommodation and application forms are available from the University Accommodation Services. Information may be found on the Web at: <http://www.anu.edu.au/study/accommodation>

14. PUBLICITY

The recipient may be requested to participate in publicity for the Award from time to time. This may include publicity in the state or territory of residence or of schooling. Recipients may be contacted for an interview and photograph. The University may also publicise the Award by publishing the names of the recipients. Arrangements for such publicity will be made through the ANU College of Business and Economics or ANU Communications and Engagement (ACE).

15. DISCLOSURE AND DONOR CONTACT

For the purposes of reporting on the impact of student financial awards, the name, program name and demographics (for example: age, country or town of residence) relating to a recipient of the Award may be disclosed to donors supporting the Award. This will not include recipient contact details. The recipient may be asked to write a personal note of thanks or to meet with donors. Any contact between a donor and a recipient will be facilitated by the ANU Advancement Office or an authorised representative of the University.

16. CONTACT WITH THE AWARD OWNER
