JOY PETERS AND REENA WALIA DIVERSITY SCHOLARSHIP CONDITIONS OF AWARD

1. INTRODUCTION

Each Year the ANU College of Engineering and Computer Science ('the College') may offer an award known as the Joy Peters and Reena Walia Diversity Scholarship ('the Award').

The objective of the Award is to support first-year women seeking to study Engineering or Computer Science at ANU who are experiencing financial or other disadvantages.

Funding for this Award has been provided by Joy Peters and Reena Walia to recognise and acknowledge their parents, whose encouragement and sacrifice made it possible for them to attend ANU. The Donors seek to support a diverse College and University student community, representative of the populations from which those students come and which they may ultimately serve.

2. BENEFITS

The value of the Award is stated in your letter of offer. The duration of the Award is one year and is paid in the first year of the recipient's undergraduate Engineering and/or Computer Science degree. The Award is paid in two equal instalments after the census date of each semester, unless otherwise stated in the letter of offer.

The recipient is responsible for making payment of all tuition fees by the prescribed date as set out by the University each session. Recipients of this Award are responsible for the costs of books, study materials, accommodation and all other costs of study.

3. ELIGIBILITY

The Award is available each year to a commencing ANU student who:

- (a) is a domestic student; and
- (b) identifies as female; and
- (c) has completed or is completing their Year 12 or equivalent qualification and has not enrolled in any undergraduate degree program prior to commencing at the University; and
- (d) is enrolling in an undergraduate Engineering and/or Computing single or flexible double degree offered by the College of Engineering and Computer Science; and
- (e) has experienced financial or other disadvantages and is eligible for adjustment factors under the National Access Scheme.

4. APPLICATION

All applicants applying for admission through the ANU Admission Scholarship and Accommodation Application System will be automatically considered for the award based on them meeting the eligibility criteria and electing to be considered for scholarships.

5. SELECTION

Selection is made on the basis of lowest ICSEA attended in the final years of schooling. Other factors may be taken into account where they align with the University's strategic objectives to ensure a diverse student cohort such as applicants who have the highest severity of adjustment factors and those who have received adjustment factors for a combination of disadvantages.

The Award is offered to a student by the University Coursework Scholarships Committee. Details of this Committee are outlined in the ANU Coursework Scholarships procedure.

The selection committee reserves the right to make no award if it considers there is no applicant of sufficient merit. The selection committee may also vary the number of Awards and/or offer the Award at other times in exceptional circumstances or based on the standard of applications or students (where funds allow).

6. CONCURRENT HOLDING OF AWARDS

A recipient of the Award is permitted to hold concurrent student financial awards as outlined in the ANU Coursework Scholarships procedure.

7. DEFERMENT

The Award cannot be deferred.

8. ONGOING ELIGIBILITY

A recipient of this Award is required to enrol in a full-time load of 18-24 units per semester. A recipient requests permission, in writing, from the College Dean or Dean's delegate to hold the Award on a part-time basis. If approved, payments of the Award will be made on a pro-rata basis.

9. CESSATION OF AWARD

The Award ceases or should be surrendered:

- (a) if a student no longer meets the eligibility requirements;
- (b) at the conclusion of the period outlined in section 2; or
- (c) on the date on which the recipient withdraws or ceases to attend the University other than for approved absences;

This includes circumstances where the false information is unrelated to the assessment for the Award.
