PhB SCIENCE SCHOLARSHIP CONDITIONS OF AWARD

1. INTRODUCTION

Each year the ANU College of Science ('the College') may offer up to 10 awards known as the PhB Science Scholarship ('the Award').

The objective of the Award is to provide support to PhB Science students from disadvantaged backgrounds and/or to assist PhB Science students in relocation costs to support their moving to Canberra.

Funding for this Award has been provided by the ANU College of Science.

2. BENEFITS

The value of the Award is stated in your letter of offer. The duration of the Award is for one year. The Award is paid in two instalments at the beginning of each semester unless otherwise stated in the letter of offer.

The recipient is responsible for making payment of all tuition fees by the prescribed date as set out by the University each session. Recipients of the Award are responsible for the costs of books, study materials, accommodation and all other costs of study.

3. ELIGIBILITY

The Award is available each year to a prospective ANU student who:

- (a) is a domestic or international student; and
- (b) receives an offer of admission to the Bachelor of Philosophy (Honours) – Science or the Bachelor of Philosophy (Honours) – Science/Bachelor of Science (Honours) ANU-NUS joint degree program; and
- (c) has not previously enrolled in any undergraduate degree program.

4. APPLICATION

All applicants applying for admission through the ANU Admission Scholarship and Accommodation Application System ('ASA') will be automatically considered for the Award based on them meeting the eligibility criteria and electing to be considered for scholarships.

International students and domestic students not applying via ASA must submit a statement addressing how they meet the eligibility criteria and attach relevant documentation to support their claims. The application and all supporting documentation (where applicable) must be submitted on or prior to the closing date published on the ANU Scholarship website.

5. SELECTION

Selection is made on the basis of applicants meeting the eligibility criteria and their answers provided in the ASA application or the Award application as outlined below. If there are more eligible applicants than there are awards available, applicants must satisfy one or more of the following criteria (in order of priority and where applicable) to be considered:

- (a) financial hardship;
- (b) Indigenous Australian;
- (c) long-term medical condition/disability or ongoing effects of abuse;
- (d) refugee status;
- (e) attended the final years of schooling at a low ICSEA school (school below 1000);
- (f) attendance at a rural school, defined in accordance UAC EAS category S01C;
- (g) resides outside of Australia prior to the commencement of their PhB (Honours) studies

If Awards remain after consideration of applicants against the above criteria, then the Award is available to a prospective ANU student who satisfies the following criterion:

- (h) Resides outside the Canberra region prior to the commencement of their PhB (Honours) studies.

Preference may be given to applicants relocating from more distant or difficult to access locations.

The Award is offered to a student by the University Coursework Scholarships Committee. Membership of this committee is outlined in the ANU Coursework Scholarships procedure.

The selection committee reserves the right to make no award if it considers there is no applicant of sufficient merit. The selection committee may also vary the number of Awards and/or offer the Award at other times in exceptional circumstances or based on the standard of applications or students (where funds allow).

6. CONCURRENT HOLDING OF AWARDS

A recipient of the Award is permitted to hold concurrent scholarships as outlined in the ANU Coursework Scholarships procedure.

7. DEFERMENT

The Award cannot be deferred.

8. ONGOING ELIGIBILITY

A recipient of this Award is required to enrol in a full-time load (minimum of 18 units) per semester. A recipient requests permission, in writing, from the Chair of the PhB Committee to hold the Award on a part-time basis. If approved, payments of the Award will be made on a pro-rata basis.

9. CESSATION OF AWARD

The Award ceases or should be surrendered:

- (a) at the conclusion of the period outlined in section 2; or
- (b) on the date on which the recipient withdraws or ceases to attend the University other than for approved absences;
- (c) if a recipient fails to enrol as required in section 8;
- (d) if a recipient changes to part-time enrolment without receiving permission to retain their Award;
- (e) if a recipient transfers to a program not listed in section 3(b);
- (f) if a recipient breaches academic or behavioural standards set by the University under the Academic Misconduct & Discipline Rules;

whichever is earliest.
