ANU/GO FOUNDATION HERITAGE SCHOLARSHIP CONDITIONS OF AWARD

1. INTRODUCTION

In 2022, the Tjabal Indigenous Higher Education Centre ('the Tjabal Centre') may offer an award known as the ANU/GO Foundation Heritage Scholarship ('the Award').

The objective of the Award is to support an undergraduate Indigenous student enrolled in a degree program in, or which has a focus on, archaeology, anthropology, history, or cultural heritage curatorship.

Funding for this Award has been provided by GO Foundation.

2. BENEFITS

The value of the Award is stated in your letter of offer. The duration of the Award is for up to four years. The Award is paid in equal instalments at the beginning of each semester unless otherwise stated in the letter of offer.

In addition to stipend payments, the GO Foundation will also extend invitations to the recipient/s to attend access and opportunities events, cultural and aspirational mentoring days, GO Foundation events and to meet co-founders and GO Foundation staff and Directors. These opportunities aim to provide as much pastoral, educational and employment network support as possible.

The recipient is responsible for making payment of all tuition fees by the prescribed date as set out by the University each session. Recipients of the Award are responsible for the costs of books, study materials, accommodation and all other costs of study.

3. ELIGIBILITY

The Award is available to a current ANU student who:

- (a) is a domestic student; and
- (b) is enrolled in a degree program in, or which has a focus on, archaeology, anthropology, history, or cultural heritage curatorship; and
- (c) identifies as an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander person.

4. APPLICATION

The application is submitted on the prescribed form. Any requirement for supporting documentation and forwarding details will be stated on the application form and/or ANU Scholarships website. The application and all supporting documentation (where applicable) must be submitted on or prior to the closing date published on the ANU scholarships website.

5. SELECTION

Selection is made on the basis of the answers submitted in the application with applicants assessed on their ability to demonstrate (in no particular order): a strong cultural identity; aspirations to achieve (not only academically); evidence of giving back to community; good academic standing at ANU; and financial need.

The Award is offered to a student by a selection committee chaired by the Director, Tjabal Centre, which will also include a Senior ANU Academic Staff Member and a third member selected by the Director, Tjabal Centre.

The selection committee reserves the right to make no award if it considers there is no applicant of sufficient merit. The selection committee may also vary the number of Awards and/or offer the Award at other times in exceptional circumstances or based on the standard of applications or students (where funds allow).

6. CONCURRENT HOLDING OF AWARDS

A recipient of the Award is permitted to hold concurrent student financial awards as outlined in the ANU Coursework Scholarships procedure.

7. DEFERMENT

The Award cannot be deferred.

8. ONGOING ELIGIBILITY

A recipient of this Award is required to enrol in a full-time load of 18 to 24 units per semester. A recipient requests permission, in writing, from the Director, Tjabal Centre, to hold the Award on a part-time basis. If approved, payments of the Award will be made on a pro-rata basis.

Recipients are expected to maintain a Grade Point Average (GPA) of 4.0 or above each semester (with the average being across all courses taken in a particular semester or session/s overlapping that semester).

If a recipient is unable to achieve the GPA in any semester a formal warning is sent.

If the recipient does not meet the required GPA in a subsequent semester they risk having their Award suspended or terminated.

A recipient is given the opportunity to explain their performance and how their performance can be remedied before a decision on the suspension or termination of an Award is made.

9. CESSATION OF AWARD

The Award ceases or should be surrendered:

- (a) if a student no longer meets the eligibility requirements;
- (b) at the conclusion of the period outlined in section 2;
- (c) on the date on which the recipient withdraws or ceases to attend the University other than for approved absences;
- (d) if a recipient fails to enrol as required in section 8;
- (e) if a recipient changes to part-time enrolment without receiving permission to retain the Award;
- (f) if a recipient changes their program or focus away from one of the areas stated in section 3(b);
- (g) if a recipient fails to meet the minimum academic performance requirements; or
- (h) if a recipient breaches academic or behavioural standards set by the University under the Academic Integrity Rule and/or the Discipline Rule;
